Associate Memberships

The destinies of the carwash industry, oil companies and suppliers are inextricably linked. For this reason, the Canadian Carwash Association actively promotes cooperation between the three groups — one that results in a truly effective union that has significant influence on the industry's business and legislative environments. In this way, CCA plays its part in helping ensure the future economic health of the industry as a whole. Additional financial support for CCA's ambitious program is achieved by encouraging suppliers to become active Associate Members of the Canadian Carwash Association.
