

CARWASH TOOLKIT™

Getting Started

CONTENT

- Canadian Carwash Industry Overview
- Industry Success Factors
- Types of Carwashes
- What Makes for a Great Carwash Site?
- How Do I Get Started?
- Basic Land Requirements
- General Tips
- Purchasing an Existing Carwash Site
- Estimating Building Costs, Operating Costs and Revenue
- Preparing a Business Plan

CANADIAN CARWASH
ASSOCIATION

Dedicated to sharing knowledge and best practices, while promoting the benefits of professional carwashing.

Table of Contents

- Canadian Carwash Industry Overview 1
 - Industry Success Factors 1
 - Disclaimer and Terms of Use 1
 - Copyright Notice 2
- Types of Carwashes 3
 - 1. The Self-Serve Wash 3
 - 2. The Rollover (In-Bay Automatic) Wash 6
 - 3. The Tunnel (Conveyor) Wash 6
 - 4. The Automatic Debate: Touch versus Touchless/Tunnel versus Rollover 7
 - 5. Other types of Carwashes 9
 - 6. Combo Wash Sites 10
- What Makes for a Great Carwash Site? 11
- How Do I Get Started? 12
- Basic Land Requirements 14
 - Steps to Take: 14
 - Site Analysis and Considerations before Purchasing 15
 - The Offer 16
- General Tips 17
 - Zoning Matters 17
 - Environmental Concerns 18
 - Impact Studies 18
 - Feasibility Study 18
 - Staffing 18
 - The Competition 19
- Purchasing an Existing Carwash Site 20
 - What to Look For 20
 - Verifying Revenue 21
- Estimating Building Costs, Operating Costs and Revenue 23
 - Building Cost 24
 - Annual Operating Expenses 24
 - Estimating Revenue 25
 - Best Practices for Carwash Site Construction 25
- Preparing a Business Plan 29
 - Developing a Team 30
- Acknowledgements 31